ELSI PARs Purpose

- Renew expiring 2019 PARs: R01, R03 and R21
- Support investigator-initiated ELSI research in four broad areas
- Multidisciplinary, single or mixed methods
- Empirical qualitative and quantitative methods, and conceptual, legal, and normative approaches
- Stakeholder involvement encouraged

Updates

- New (2021) area: Genomics at the Institutional and Systems Level
- Broaden disciplines and lived experiences
- Length of community-oriented projects
  - R01: encourage early discussions on project length
  - R21: with NIH permission, allow 3-year projects
- Specify and explain the purpose of demographic variables to be collected and analyzed
